VINTAGE

The 2015 vintage was one of the warmest growing seasons on record in Washington State. Warm temperatures continued through the spring and summer, moderating slightly into fall and extending an early harvest. Overall, 2015 saw very favorable growing conditions, producing optimal ripening across varieties and yielding outstanding wines throughout the Wahluke Slope.

VINEYARDS

The Wahluke Slope is nestled above the Columbia River in south-central Washington. With one of the warmest and driest climates in Washington state and sandy loam soil in the vineyards, the terroir in this historical region is perfect for creating big, bold wines with outstanding structure.

VINIFICATION

- Extreme caution was taken to protect against oxidation from field through the winery.
- The fruit was pressed quickly and the juice cold-settled for 48 hours.
- The clean juice was racked off solids and then cool fermented for 21 days in a temperature-controlled, stainless steel tank.
- Minimal fining and filtration prior to bottling retained the wine's delicate aromas and flavors.

TASTING NOTES

"This wine opens with a big hit of melon and tropical fruit leading to flavors of passion fruit and guava with a crisp acidic finish. It has some herbaceous background notes but being such a warm site in the Wahluke Slope this is much more of a fruit focused wine."
